Specialist Suppliers of Computer Labels

Our Computer Labels can be plain or printed or we can manufacture them to your specific needs.

The white face paper on our Computer Labels has been specially selected to absorb spirit inks at high speed and the top quality tough backing paper, to give consistent printing and a high degree of cutter accuracy. Whether you are looking for printable address labels or general labels for dot matrix/sprocket fed printers, LabelsPlus are here to help. With over 20 years' experience, we have a proven track record of offering the best quality products and excellent customer service.

All our Computer Labels have 1/16" horizontal separation and either 1/4" or 1/10" vertical separation. For the wide range of sizes available, please refer to the tables below.

PLEASE NOTE:

All our stock computer labels are manufactured using a white kraft backing paper.

PEL = Perforation between each label.
